Title: The Great Journey Begins

I see my little birds have migrated back. Now, my beloved souls, you cannot stay away from this place of Light, though you look around and wonder, but I tell you this is a place of Light and you are the custodians of the Light, beloved souls.

Continue to do this work, to listen to God's promptings and to go where God wishes for you to go, for how many carry this truth beloved souls? So very few. And how precious you are in this world to have the knowledge that you have, to have the experience that you have, and the Light within your souls burning a true testimony of God's Love within you.

Beloved souls, for each who is willing and strong enough there is much work, there is much work. And the means will be provided, the opportunities will be laid before you to continue upon this journey, this caravan of hope taking you from one place to another, sowing the seeds of truth, bringing Love, and comfort, and healing to many.

Yes, you begin a great journey that will take you to many places. Beloved souls, allow God to carry you forth in this great work and as you step forward you will know what you are meant to do. So, my little birds, you rest upon this perch for a while then fly to another and some will fly to others singing your songs of love. Continue, beloved souls, take your journeys, your flights, your love around the world. God bless you. May God always, always bless you. And yes the healing of Divine Love is a special blessing for all. God bless you.

Title: All In The Flow Of God's Love

God bless you, beautiful souls. I am Brother Mandus and I see that you carry your banner of truth. Each one of you comes here to bring the truth, the truth of Love and how Love redeems the soul, and how Love is the greatest power of all and this truth you bring with your presence and the grace that flows all about you and through you. This is what you carry, beloved souls, into my house and you are welcomed, heartily welcomed, into my home for I wish that my home be a place of Light, of Love, a place of healing, a place where all who enter through the door are embraced with love, are cared for and are respected. That was always my philosophy and I wish for this attitude and this demeanor and this flow of Love to continue within this place.

And yes, we are pleased, all of us in the Celestial Kingdom who are a part of this venture, are very pleased that you have made your efforts to come these distances, to be a part of this, to stand for this truth of God's Love. And you must stand firm, gently but firm. Allow God to work through each one of you, for each one of you here has a special gift and some ability to contribute to what is meant to be accomplished at this time together. I do not say that you will be aware of what it is that is accomplished at this time or how you play your part, but it shall flow through you. You will be inspired and I promise you that an Angel will be with you at all times and will bring their comfort and their protection for you.

And yes, there has been talk of the great portal of Light within the sanctuary and this is your task, beloved souls, to help bring forth in more powerful ways this portal. The intensity of this Light will bring many manifestations of God's Will, and healing, and Love into this part of the world. And it is a great responsibility that we place upon you, beloved souls, to be focused, prayerful, and faithful as you pray in this place.

Now you are to meet other souls there who are primarily within their mind, they have very set beliefs and are rigid and I would request that you do not confront these individuals in a way that would continue to harden their perspectives. No, you must embrace them in love. You see, what you are doing here will be repeated over and over again in the world. This is but one opportunity, and in many ways a test, for you to deal with these earthly conditions, the resistances, the attitudes, the politics of this world, and to be able to manifest God's Will through you despite these attempts to block and divert your intentions and God's intentions. It requires that you listen carefully to your guidance, to be spiritually attuned, to tread softly, but to walk with your head high, to be clear in your own understanding of what it is you are doing here. For you have made great efforts, each one of you, to come to this place. God has entrusted you with a task. The doors are opened, the Angels have worked diligently to bring about the conditions so that this Light may manifest in this place in a powerful way and this great blessing will benefit many, many souls; you will benefit, those present will benefit and there are many connected to each one of you that will benefit and many that you know not who they are will benefit from your prayers and this effort together.

You have sought to serve God; each one of you dedicated souls have chosen to serve God and now you are given an opportunity to do so. Do not let any negative obstructions within your minds inhibit what is meant to be. You must take the higher road, you are seeking the highest, beloved souls, and you must manifest the highest in everything you do as God's channels of Love.

And I wish to personally thank you, each one of you, for your decision to come here in love, to answer the call, to be a channel of Love and to allow love above all else to manifest in this work that you do. For what can be accomplished without love? What can be accomplished without prayer and faith and your intention for the highest?

Embrace one another, embrace all you meet, be in God's flow of Love and nothing will stand in the way of what is meant to be. God bless you, beloved souls, I am your brother Mandus and I am a resident of the Celestial Kingdom, I know the Truth, God bless you and keep you in His Grace. I love you.

Title: The Difference Between Mind And Soul

I am Matthew and I have come to talk to you about the mind and the soul and how there are different aspects of awareness and consciousness that arise out of these two aspects of your being. If you think of the mind as water, think of the soul as light. In both cases many levels of awareness can be achieved in each aspect of your being but they are different. If the mind is water what you put into the mind colours that water and in some cases changes the composition of that water. And therefore the consciousness of the mind is changeable and influenced highly by the intellect, the learning of each individual, and this becomes an evolving and somewhat crystalizing way of viewing the world, whereas the soul made of light does indeed evolve and change and is influenced by the experiences of the individual. Rather than that which is put into it by the ideas and thoughts of man, it absorbs the influence of God and so this light changes and brightens and becomes clearer and more beautiful as the soul yearns to be closer to God, as the soul puts forth sincere prayer, as the soul listens to the guidance and wisdom and blessings of God. And then the soul may receive the Divine Love of God, His Essence, and this is transformative, a special kind of Light which brings not only clarity but also expansion and allows the soul to come into rapport and atonement with God in a way not achieved by the mind, not achieved by the soul that is pure but untouched by the Divine Love. This is a special kind of consciousness, a special knowing that can only be achieved in this way. This blessing of Grace, this Spirit of Love, this Essence of God ignites the soul's awareness, perceptions, capacities like nothing else can do. It is an awakening, an opening, a way in which every soul may find God in all the fullness of this discovery, in all the ways that this awareness and connection can be made for the potentials of the soul, the light of the soul is transformed by this Touch of Divine Love.

My brothers, my sisters, seek ye the Kingdom. Seek this Love and you shall inherit and experience and find all the bounties of Heaven, all the riches of knowing God fully. Walk this Path, the Path of the soul, the Path of the soul's awakening and you shall know Heaven, true Heaven and be at-one with God. This simple, beseeching of God to receive His Love will open these doors to great riches, great treasures, expansion of your soul to include all that is within the universe, all the knowings, all the blessings, all the Light that is possible to have and this, my beloved friends, is infinite.

So beloved souls, I beseech you to open your souls to the inflowing of this Love. No, it does not reside within you as a natural attribute of your being. Love certainly does exist within each soul given by God upon your creation, but this Love, this special blessing is given through prayer and longing and opening, the decision of the soul to receive it, to know it, to be blessed in this way.

God bless you, beloved souls. Thank you for allowing me to speak. Know the difference between the levels of consciousness of the mind, this watery realm and that of the soul, this light-filled adventure, an awakening and in this way each of you may choose what it is that you desire, what is important to you. God wishes to give you all you desire. God wishes that you expand and grow and exploit all the potentials of your being. But He also gives you the opportunity to go beyond your natural capacities to a place that is unlimited in its potentials and we who reside in the Celestial Heavens give you an invitation. Open this door to God within your soul and ask to receive His Love. You will know of that which I speak, this redeeming Love, this healing Love, this Divine Love and you will know a great joy, a great joy in this awakening. God Bless you. God bless you. I am Matthew and I am pleased to speak today on this great blessing. God Bless you.

Title: Seek The Light Of God's Love

Your teacher Augustine. May each one of you come to truly recognize the touch of God within your souls, that you come to recognize how God may touch your souls over and over again bringing about transformation, bringing about greater awareness, opening your eyes, awakening your beings, all from the Touch of God. His Love bringing within you great change, an evolution, a transformation that shall radiate out from the centre of your being into your consciousness, into your mind, into your body, into your spirit causing harmony, peace, joy, and a great capacity to love, to love all in creation, to love all your brothers and sisters, to be in that flow of Love, that Divine Grace that you all seek, that your souls are compelled to seek. This change within, this shift also brings a strengthening of your being, a resilience so that when all that around you changes and your comfort and your sense of security is gone you are able to have this strength within you which allows you to feel comfort, to know security in God. This is the only constant in a life that can be relied upon - your relationship with your Heavenly Father, your relationship with the Truth that is Love.

When you build within yourself through your prayers, through your longings, through the openings of your soul, through the embracing of God, who embraces you, you have true security, you have true strength, you have a clarity of vision, an understanding of truth, which makes you a Light in the world. And those you admired who have been Lights in the world have all found this security, this strength, this Light and this is available to all, no matter their position in society, no matter their condition in the world, it is available to all and it is what you must seek.

God does not command you to love him but God beseeches you to know His Love. It is your choice to come to this understanding that you are truly loved, that God truly wishes for you to be immersed in this condition of Love and in this way you are healed, you are re-made, you are given true strength. It is a simple opening of yourselves to this blessing of Love, to accept and acknowledge God's Love for you, to be in this Grace always no matter the conditions you encounter, the challenges, this Love will always be a constant, this Love can always be relied upon, and this Love will always be gifted to you, my beloveds. If you so desire this, it shall be given. If you so seek in your prayers and your longings, in your connection with God, there will be this response. Powerfully, beautifully, simply. All else is secondary to this relationship. Love is the highest Gift. Love is the greatest Gift. Love is the most healing Gift that can be given. And to nurture this flame of Love, you set yourself upon a course that shall bring to you all the wisdom, all the knowledge of the universe, all that you seek both within your minds and your souls will be given in time as you walk this path of Love and receive ever greater inflowings of this great Gift.

Beloved souls, some of you have sought this Gift for many years, some of you have never heard of this beautiful blessing but all of you are equally loved and all of you have an equal opportunity to receive this Gift and with this I beseech you: to seek Love always, to place this as your great desire in life, and with this all else will follow. God bless you, beloved souls, and thank you for hearing my words and I love you, the Angels love you, God loves you. God bless you. I am Augustine. I was once the Bishop of Hippo. I am now an inhabitant of the Celestial Kingdom. I am an Angel of God. God bless you.

SPIRIT: JESUS

Title: You Are Part Of God's Salvation For Mankind

Dear souls, I come and I am Jesus. The heavens open for you, my beloveds, and God pours his Light, his Love upon you. Open your souls, beloved, beautiful brothers and sisters to this great benediction pouring upon you at this very moment. You have come at my call and you shall come together in many places in the world, beloved souls, to bring these great portals of Light into the world.

For God needs a circle of dedicated souls in prayer, beseeching the Heavenly Father to bring this Gift of Light. And as you do your work together opening up this wondrous Light, this Gift from God, you will come to know the purpose of these blessings, the power of this Gift and you will bring with you wherever you go a part of this Gift and blessing. It will be a part of your ministry and a channel of Love Divine in the world.

God has a plan for the salvation of mankind: it comes with Love, it comes with healing, it comes as balance is restored to this place, this Earth. And each soul here who so desires to be a part of this plan may play a role, may contribute to the unfolding of God's Will in the world and we in the Celestial Heavens are poised and work diligently to bring the healing forward to this world, so in need, to disperse the clouds of darkness, to neutralize the human condition, to bring love, to join all peoples together in peace, to allow acceptance, tolerance, where there is no judgement and fear, but joy and acknowledgement of how every soul in this world is unique, a child of God, embraced in love.

You must see the world in this way, my beloved souls. Look through the eyes of your souls and recognize this truth that you are all loved and those who are blind to this, those who shrink away from the Light, you must pray, you must pray, my beloveds, for all who are in darkness, and alone, and afraid, in pain, steeped in error. You must pray and be that channel of Light that will beam upon every soul that will bring a blessing to every soul as God works through you, my beloveds, in the world.

Continue in your prayers, your efforts, acknowledge that deep longing within your souls always and come to God. For all that you need, all that will come into your life, flooding in abundance, will come in prayer, will come as you grow in the Love, will come as you grow to love God ever more deeply, beloved souls.

Your Light shines. You walk in humility. You are learning to be patient. You are coming to see the truth with more clarity. You see now that all done in love will bring healing and peace and you are poised upon a threshold that will be a new phase in your work, in these efforts, in this great Divine Plan. Walk ever closer to God. Listen ever more intently to your guidance. Be free of your fears. Be free of that human condition which is within all but cannot exist with the Love. You will find your way. You will know great joy and freedom, great knowledge of truth, and you will be a mighty channel of Love and blessings in this world. And you will come together in ways and means that may seem impossible to you at this time but will be a reality, a great blessing from God as he continues to use you and bring you together in groupings for specific purposes in the world. And you must listen to your guidance, the upwellings from your souls so that you will understand and know what it is you are to do in service to God, in service to mankind.

Be at peace, my beloveds, and know that you are enveloped by God, touched by God, and you shall be carried by God on a wave of Love. Beloved souls, follow me, be my disciples, walk in this Light and you shall know the glory that comes in this service, in this path that is Love. God bless you, my beloveds. God bless you.

SPIRIT: BROTHER MANDUS

Medium: Al Fike Location: WHC, Blackpool, UK Date: August 26, 2016

Title: This House Is Blessed By God

Brother Mandus here. How humbling it is for me to follow the presence of the Master in your midst. And it is my wish that the Master Jesus may walk within this place freely and his truths may be taught freely within this building for they are the truths of love and liberation, of exploring and expanding of the soul, of expressing gratitude by bringing healing and peace and comfort to the lost souls in this world. And this is my wish, for this house was dedicated to God and it is to be used in God's service, to whomever may come through this door that a blessing will be given, a greeting, an embrace, that there be respect, that there be humility from the servants of God who come to minister upon the people.

This is my wish that love be the foundation of this organization, that Light be infused in every nook and cranny of this building, that truth be spoken plainly so that all can understand, and that those who come are not intimidated, or turned away but are welcomed and given some nurturance, an embrace, an acknowledgement. For when you are truly a servant of God this is a part of this service, this is a part of love, and to espouse upon the values and understandings of esoteric religions falls at the feet of those who come for nurturance and comfort and healing. It has no affect; it is the power of love, the simplicity of a simple hello, 'I love you' that reaches the soul, that nurtures the heart, that brings what is needed truly for the lost and lonely souls in this world, and there are many, so very many.

How blessed you all are to know the Touch of God, to know this fellowship, to be strong in this Light, this Love. How blessed you are. But for every soul that is blessed in this way they must give of themselves in what way that is a part of God's Will in the world. Unique to each individual. As to their gifts so shall they walk in the world. Do not hold back, do not hold back, my friends, but give of your heart. Be a channel of love in the world. Do not judge, but embrace and allow that love to flow freely to all you meet no matter that they express themselves in ways that you find difficult to understand or accept. No, my beloved, beautiful friends, you must accept all. For when this Love resides within you, the message, the transformation, that it brings is to love all and to love yourself completely and when you love yourself completely you cannot but love all in this way.

A goal is set when you receive God's Love, and that is, that your life and your being may be filled with Love and nothing else but Love.

I found in my life that when I loved and when I gave love and when I dedicated myself to service that these were the greatest times in my life, the happiest times, the most productive times, and the most blessed times. It was in service, it was in giving of myself wholly and freely to others that I found my great joy and fulfillment of my soul. And every person has a purpose, everyone has gifts, everyone can be used by God to bless others, to serve others. And this is my encouragement to you, my brethren, to walk that path of service, to be a channel of Love for others, to explore within yourselves those great potentials, the potentials of your soul that are awakened by love and as you journey in this way through your life, oh what can come, what treasures and riches you will accumulate within you, and all about you from these acts of love in the world, by embracing all.

I encourage you all, I encourage you all to express love in the world. Be courageous, be strong, be humble, be generous, and do not fear the consequences but embrace the opportunities that service brings in this world, and the blessings that being a channel of Love will bring within your souls. For as you give love so you shall receive love. As you allow that love to flow, so a part of that love is retained within you, accumulating within your soul, bringing enlightenment, true knowledge and understanding.

Beloved souls, I congratulate you on your efforts as you come together in love and continue to be together in love, to embrace all those who come through this door who come to pray with you, embrace them and pray with them and see through the eyes of your soul how precious they are, how loved they are by God.

Thank you for listening to me this day. I am so happy to be a part of your efforts and I continue to be with you as you gather and to pray with you and many Angels surround you, a great network supporting you in these efforts and this is beautiful to behold. As you continue to revitalize this great beam of Light that comes into this place and will affect many in ways of healing and bring change in miraculous ways, surprising ways. Continue to pray for the Light to build within this place. Continue to pray for the Light to build within yourselves and continue to pray that many will come through these doors and receive this great blessing which resides in this home. A blessing from God, a Gift to many, many souls. God bless you, beloveds. I am your Brother Mandus and my heart swells with love and appreciation for all of you who come in humility, who come to answer the call which God has sent for each one. God bless you.

Title: Be Open To New Directions

Yes, you will be needed soon in many ways, and you must not project your intentions too far into the future in a specific way but to be open and flexible realizing that God has a plan for you that unfolds with each day. You must be able to drop whatever attachments you may have to your ambitions, and material things in this world, to be that pure channel of God's Love, to walk in this world free of encumbrances, free of expectations, free of the human condition, but captured in the flow of God's Love which will take you very far, my beloved souls. So much rests upon your desire and your efforts to be in that condition of Love that is powerful, and free flowing. And as you trust in God in this way and let go of the old ways you will be astounded at what you will accomplish as God's instruments in the world, as this Love flows freely and vigorously.

Beloved souls, the time grows short, the need is great. God's Will will prevail for each one of you and there is so very much work to do. Do not let anything stand in the way. It is so important that you walk in this Light unimpeded by the human condition. God bless you, beloved souls, and may you have a Light-filled day this day as we will be with you and be open to whatever invitations come your way this day. God bless you, I am your teacher Augustine and I love you.

Title: This Is Hallowed Ground

I come, I am Jesus. This ground has been consecrated. It is hallowed ground. Continue to say your prayers within this place, this sanctuary of Love and Light. Continue to join with God bringing these blessings forth in this beautiful, hallowed place. It is the Will of God, my beloved souls that you worship and commune and heal and pray in this place, set about by God as a special gift. Open your eyes, beloved souls, to the power of this Divine Blessing brought about by many prayers, said by many souls, brought about by the deep longings that have been expressed here, and the power of prayer is manifest in this place.

The Light of God's Touch in a great beam filled with Healing and Grace as many of God's blessings cascade down upon you, filling this room, expanding beyond this room and this building and this place you reside within, reaching many. It is consecrated ground, beloveds. And healings are possible within this place, revelations of the soul will open for those who are willing to see and to know. Great comfort will be derived by those who pray within this place, and the Christ Spirit, the Divine Love will fill this place in great abundance. Do you recognize the gift that God has given to you?

And those of you who are custodians of this blessed, beautiful place, I urge you to acknowledge God's Will and His Gift to you and to the many who will come through these doors and pray together, to receive in powerful ways opening to them greater faith, an awakening of their souls, a soothing and a healing of their bodies, their spirits, their minds. This is a Gift from God, beloved souls, that you cannot turn away from but must acknowledge for it is a rare gift, a powerful gift, and an important gift for mankind.

I shall continue to make my presence known within this place, for with this Gift of Love and Light, Healing and Peace, I may come in my presence of Love to assist you all as you kneel in prayer. Open yourselves to what God desires to give to you and to all who come. Blessed souls, seek God. Know what true love is. Be humble. Listen. Be with God, and such great bounteous blessings will be yours in this beautiful place touched by God, filled with love. It is yours, a gift of love.

Thank you for your prayers, your efforts, and to all those who have gone before you, who have through their efforts and their faith and their love have come to draw God's special blessing and dispensation upon this ground. God bless you. I am Jesus and I love you. God bless you.

SPIRIT: BROTHER MANDUS

Title: The Soul is What Endures

God bless you, my friends. It is your brother Mandus. I am somewhat bemused by this science, philosopher fellow who attempts to explain the soul through scientific means and he does make a valiant attempt but he misses the vital point, the point that I believe that most of you within this room, and possibly all of you within this room intuitively know; that the mind and the soul are two distinct aspects of your beings. And in this world many, many individuals seek to feed their minds, seek to perceive the world from this perspective, and seek to reinforce this perspective continually in their searches for truth. And there are those who are compelled intuitively, reflexively to be centred within their souls, a different place, a different mechanism, a different way of perception, and understanding, gathering of knowledge, and truth.

It does not require linear thinking and how very linear was this individual in his presentation. No, the soul envelopes truth, and truth envelopes the soul. It is not a linear process; it is not synaptic; it is not chemical; it does not have the mechanisms so clearly understood by the sciences, of how the brain, the material mind functions. No, the soul is of a very different quality, there is no material aspect to the soul. The soul is spirit, a reflection of God. It is pure energy. It has consciousness. In fact, the soul retains your individualized consciousness forever. It is what carries through into the world of spirit. If this man's theories were correct, then upon your death you would be as nothing, those particles of which he refers would disperse, fall back into the material universe, and so this does happen, the atoms, the cells, and all that make up the material side of man do indeed return to the universe of the material existence. But as I believe you all recognize, to one degree or another, the spirit of man, the spirit of the individual continues on. And how is this possible?

Life is a touch from God and a human life is a precious and unique creation of God for no other being in this world possesses a soul, a reflection of God and the potential of the soul is immense, barely understood by any of you, any scientist. Maybe a handful in the world of mystics understand the potential of the soul, but each of you is eager to know this, to explore what the soul is capable of, to explore this level of consciousness, to explore this level of being and the gifts that are within the soul are many.

But for the soul to truly come alive, to be awakened, requires a special gift, and that gift does not reside within the soul as a given that comes with life. No, there is life within a soul, there is the gift of life within a soul, but an awakened soul can only truly be awakened by something outside of itself, something that resides within God and that is the Essence of God.

So, my beloved, beautiful friends, seekers of truth, I tell you with all the authority of my experience and the experience of many, many millions of others who have gone through the process of awakening of their souls that this very simple concept of receiving the Essence of God within, through prayer and longing, through prayer and longing to acknowledge that this gift, this blessing, this energy does not automatically come to a soul, is not there upon its incarnation in the world; it must be received. It is an act of will, it is an act of the desire of the soul and in this blessing, this Touch from God comes the great peace that passes all understanding. And when you feel, truly know, and recognize, and acknowledge this great blessing from God you will understand its uniqueness, its power, and its beauty, for there is no other love like this Love. There is no other energy in the universe like this this energy for it comes directly from God, conveyed through the Holy Spirit, bringing redemption, transformation, and awakening. I am sorry to say that this individual who obviously put a lot of thought and energy into his teachings has missed the point.

And many in this world continue to believe that the capacities of the mind, the material mind, are what will save the human race from catastrophe and de-evolution. And I tell you that it is in the development of the capacities of the material mind that much of the problems of mankind have emerged as a reaction to these mental machinations and applications in the world.

Yes, there is a thought layer around this planet and that layer of thought emerges from the thoughts of all of mankind of this collective outpouring of thought which is real and has its energetic signature. And do you know what this looks like from our perspective? Dark clouds. It is not of Light; it is heavy and it continues to influence every individual on this planet. We refer to these conditions as the human condition. They not only surround your planet but they reside within your beings, this dark and heavy human condition re-enforced over and over again by many thoughts. Now this does not mean that every thought is dark and heavy, but

I am saddened to say that many thoughts are extremely dark and fewer thoughts are Light and loving, caring and enlightened.

No, it is not the mind that will save mankind, it is the awakening of the soul, it is the recognition of the higher power, of the Heavenly Father who loves us so, and his Touch upon us will purify and heal and bring joy and true knowledge. It is this Gift, this Touch, this acknowledgement, this breakthrough that must come to each individual that will bring enlightenment and a new way, a new paradigm of thought and action and expression.

I did not clearly understand this when I was on Earth. I had inklings and insights. I felt the Love of God, but now I have come to see clearly as I have traversed the spheres of spirit, as I have entered into the Celestial Kingdom, and from this lofty perspective I now see the truth of the matter and I empathize with all of you who struggle within your minds to understand Truth, who struggle with your own human condition, who harbour the pains of a life lived, who seek God in your own way. And, yes, often your life is lived in the shadows of these dark clouds and you attempt in whatever way you find necessary to cope, to rationalize, to understand. And this is understandable. Know that love is always the answer to any great dilemma, any unknown truth. Any way in which true change will come about within you, it must come with love, and when you express your love in this place to those who come, you are doing God's work, for the energy of love is the only energy, whether it be the Natural Love or the Divine Love, that will disperse those clouds of the human condition and this is important to realize how crucial is the expression of love, putting love into action, embracing, acknowledging, enveloping those you meet. And this may be a look in your eyes, an arm reached around another, a prayer together for healing, to exchange a bit of truth, to be what we call in the Celestial Heavens, the channel of Love in the world. This is so very crucial and important in this world today, so bereft of love, so influenced by the conditions of thought, so lacking in true spiritual understanding.

Beloved brothers and sisters, whom I joyously welcome into my home, continue to seek the Truth, but give consideration to your soul, for this is what endures, this is what you must nurture. And a soul truly nurtured is a soul that is close to God. It is prayer that brings you there. It is sincerity within you, a true acknowledging of who you are, your true being, your soul, and a true acknowledging of your Creator who created you in Love, who nurtures you in Love, who seeks to lead you into greater Love and Healing and Peace.

I thank you for allowing me to speak and I speak because I feel great love for each one of you, for when one is touched by God in this way and healed in this way by this Touch, one can only feel, a great love, compassion, a desire to reach out, to help, to assist you upon your journey. I have learned much since I have come into the world of spirit and I cannot say that I am entirely pleased with some of my writings, for some missed the mark, I was human. Much does indeed lead to some truth, a measure of truth, but I tell you that I did so, these writings and my efforts and my speeches and my healings, I did so for the love of God. Knowing how much God loved me was my sustaining grace, my great joy in life and I do so desire that you all come to know this Love of God and bring it into your heart and walk with this Light wherever you go. Beloved souls, thank you and God bless you.

Title: Pray for this Place

I am Faith and I greet you all in this beautiful room, this sanctuary of healing and peace where God's presence touches the hearts of all who enter its threshold. And I greet my dear friend Anne, whom I love, and am with often, and Timothy and all my old friends who are still in this world.

The Will of God sweeps through this building and it carries many souls with it, souls who are destined to be here in this place, in prayer, in service, teaching, healing, and many are meant to come, of different faiths, some with varying ideas and concepts. Know these doors are meant to bring in all peoples, all races, religions, creeds, and sects. These doors are meant to allow the seeking souls, the curious souls, the loving souls, the souls in pain and confusion, all of humanity must be represented in these walls so that God may minister to them, that His Will be done in this place. And each of you who commit to bring forth, your desire and intention to serve in a loving way, are welcome into these doors and this place. For what is a centre for healing for the world if you do not bring the world within and heal? What is God's Will, if you do not embrace all in love?

And I know that those who have been here have found this a struggle, to draw in the souls who are meant to be within this place and I say, continue to pray for this miracle of Love to manifest. And I know that there are beautiful souls who come through these doors, who desire to pray, to give and to receive and this must build. For this place to continue to stand it must build and expand. As this Light that has come into this building has expanded and pulsated out, it will draw many, it will draw many. And I know that each one of you here can give of yourself in beautiful ways as God's channels of Love. I know you are capable of embracing many and I encourage you for it is indeed God's Will that healing and love, comfort and truth, be given in this place, God's house, a house so beautiful.

Utilize the Light that has been given and all of you please pray for this place that it shall be a true centre of Light, a shelter from the storm of life, a place of refuge, of healing, of nurturance. And each one of you have affirmed this purpose for this place through giving your love and your prayers, by embracing one another, by being that Light.

Please continue to walk in that Light of God's presence, to carry that Love wherever you go, to be those bright and shining examples of Truth, to hold your head high, to walk knowing how beautiful you are, and how beautiful is each soul in this world, all children of God, and as such, your brothers and your sisters in the world.

There is much work to do, my brothers and sisters, there is so much work to do. And all work starts with your intention and the power of your prayers to bring about God's Will to manifest here, bringing love into action, and with each action love. Open your hearts. Open your minds to the possibilities. Open your souls to God's Love and you cannot fail in your efforts to bring healing to the world, healing to the world. This is so important. And healing cannot come to the world without your intention and commitment and faith in this process, for each channel of Light and Love in the world must walk in faith and be clear as to what it is they are engaged within. As God guides you along your path, be clear, my friends, be focused, even resolute in your efforts to be that channel of Love in the world, to be used by God in whatever capacity is available to you.

Yes, there is much work to do and the time grows short and the workers few but with the power of God's Love and God's Will those who engage within this work will be empowered to change the world. Yes, the world needs to be set upon a different course, one in which love and respect, truth and honour, be the cornerstones of everyone's lives. Be that, my beloved, beautiful friends. Express this in everything you do and be humble, be generous, and kind, love your brothers and sisters, seek God in all that you do, and listen to your guidance, for God has much to say to you. God will guide you. God will heal you. God will envelope you in His Love, and bring you to a place of deep and abiding joy and peace.

Beloved friends, it really is so very simple and as you live this simple life all the complexities will fall away or fall into place and you will not be bothered by those conditions of the world that are so difficult. You will know love, clarity, you will be strong, you will know what to do and you will hear God's song within your heart and dance to this beautiful rhythm and it will be a joyful dance, a creative dance, a dance that only you, as a unique soul, will follow. God blessed you with life and I urge you to live it fully and the best way to express yourself is in giving to others in loving ways, to walk through life in this glorious expression of who you truly are. Be true to yourselves, be true to God, and love one another.

Thank you for listening to what I have to say. I want you to know how much I love you and I make effort with each one of you here to help you upon your life's journey. My prayers, my love are with you. God bless you, beloved souls. I am Faith and I love you.

Title: Come Down to the River

Come down to the river with me, beloved souls. Come down to that river of God's great Love. And I not only ask you to bend down and sip of these waters but to remove the clothing of your mental assumptions. All that is within your mind, release this. Release the yoke of your fears. Release the judgements of your mind and come and wade within these waters of Love. Let them carry you. Let them envelope you. Let them heal you. For within this blessing, these great wondrous Living Waters, comes the true freedom, comes the true understanding, comes the Christ Spirit, the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Truth and the Spirit of Love. Yes, all these things come with God's Living Waters of Love and it is for each one you, beloved souls, to release all that which holds you from being immersed in this wondrous Gift flowing ceaselessly to you, around you, within you. PRAYER FROM JESUS

Medium: Al Fike Location: Abbotsford, BC Date: May 11, 2016

*“Father, open my soul to this Gift, Your Love
Open my soul
And may Your Holy Spirit touch my soul
And pour within it Your Essence, Your Love

That I may be transformed
That I might be Your true child
Embraced and carried
Lit along my life’s path in the glory of Your Light
And care and protection”*

OUR CELESTIAL GUIDES AND TEACHERS

The messages we received were from Angels—Celestial Spirit Guides and Teachers who once lived on Earth...yes, they were human once, and through their soul longings, were transformed from the image of God into Divine spirits by praying to God sincerely for an inflowing of Divine Love. In the summer of 2016, they included:

Jesus of Nazareth, now Master of the Celestial Heavens.

Matthew, Apostle of Jesus of Nazareth.

Confucius, an ancient Chinese philosopher.

Brother Mandus, founder of the World Healing Crusade.

Faith, a great mystic and charismatic Catholic who challenged the orthodoxy of the Church.

Augustine, when on Earth, Bishop of Hippo.

St. Francis of Assisi, founder of the Franciscan order.
